♪ A Note from Linda Tinney, LAS Guild President

The orchestra brought us yet another wonderful concert in February, featuring our fabulous high school competition winners. So many people told me how much they enjoyed the concert program as well as the lively performance at intermission by student jazz band "Element 116". It was lovely chatting with orchestra and audience members in the Bankhead lobby after the concert while enjoying a glass of champagne.

The annual Installation of Officers Luncheon will be held on May 19, 2016 at Robert Livermore Community Center. Please note that this is a change of date due to lack of availability of venue space following the Doubletree Hotel closure. More details will appear in the next issue of Symphony Notes. We hope to bring the luncheon back to the Doubletree next year.

The Guild is always looking for fresh new faces to serve as officers and committee chairs. If you have ever thought of taking a leadership position, here is your chance. During the 2016–17 season, we are looking to mentor prospective Guild volunteers to shadow officers and committee chairs in their respective positions and learn their jobs first hand. We're a fun group with the goal of supporting our LAS orchestra. Please don't be shy! Let us know your areas of interest. We'd love to have you join us!

The Guild is gearing up for the Pops Concert scheduled for Friday, October 21, led once again by Nancy McKenzie. If you have ideas for a theme please share them with Nancy or me.

Thank you, members of the Guild, for all you do to support our wonderful orchestra!

April 9th Concert Highlights

Dvořák's Cello Concerto in B Minor Austin Huntington, soloist

Cellist Austin Huntington made his solo orchestra debut at age 10 with the South Bend (Indiana) Youth Symphony. The 21-year-old is now a fourth year Bachelor of Music student at the Colburn School in Los Angeles. He plays on a fine Italian cello made by Francesco Ruggeri of Cremona, c. 1690.

In June 2015, at age 20, Austin was appointed principal cellist of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, and he is currently one of the youngest principal musicians of any major American orchestra. "My life has changed drastically—I went from being a student at a conservatory who studied with one of the greatest principal cellists of all time [Ronald Leonard] to an actual professional who is in charge of people now. It still feels surreal to me. Every day is definitely a new learning experience."

Austin first learned the Dvořák concerto at age 12. He says, "With this piece, no matter how hard you work on it, or how long you play it, you always come up with new ideas or interpretations. It's an audience's and a soloist's favorite concerto because of all it contains—technical passagework, sweet singing melodies, haunting themes, joyful/triumphant sections, etc. I am really looking forward to the performance with LAS and bringing my music to the audience!"

A Letter from LAS Association President Denise Leddon

Unbelievable, the February concert! Our fabulous concert music ... the flavor change of Element 116 jazz band at intermission ... the poise of Jiho Choi after her cello bow broke ... Tony Kim's flair for whipping his violin bow up through the air after momentous passages. We in the orchestra felt your exuberance after each piece through your rave applause! These feelings stayed with me for weeks. Best stated to me by Clark Streeter ten days after the performance, "I still keep thinking about that concert!"

Scott Kenison, Livermore Valley Performing Art Center's executive director, gave his annual report to the Livermore City Council on March 14. Hearing all the successes all at once was a proud moment ... 70,000 attendees, the reference to first-timers, the number of sell-out shows, total volunteer hours, youth outreach numbers, the nationally recognized winning shows, the diversity of shows, the opening of the Visitors Center in the Bankhead lobby. So much more was shared, including future plans, one being that the Bankhead is going solar thanks to donated equipment.

I was especially proud because LAS got brief mentions during Scott's report for our Peter and the Wolf Free Family Concert, the instrument petting zoo, and the in-school outreach efforts supported by LVPAC. The best moment was when he shared that LVPAC ended the year with a surplus. He presented a $20,000 check to the City of Livermore. Thank you to Scott and his hard-working staff at the Bankhead and Bothwell. We all love our theater!

As part of our youth outreach for the 2016–17 season, LASA has been awarded three grants so far. The Livermore Rotary is underwriting the attendance of youths at our LAS open dress rehearsals. In collaboration with LVPAC, we are also receiving grants from the Pleasanton Arts Commission and the Pleasanton Youth Commission to support our Peter and the Wolf youth outreach in three Pleasanton schools.

To get a flavor of the in-school concerts, enjoy this YouTube video, narrated by Lara Webber, of one of the three Livermore school concerts the symphony performed in November 2015. Our second violinist Jackie McBride took the video and post-processed it with photos. (You can also find this link on our LAS website managed by first violinist Judy Eckart, and from our Facebook page updated by clarinetist Kathy Boster.)

We are charging ahead rehearsing the April 9 concert. The Dvořák cello concerto in B Minor is spectacular. It's so "Dvořák"! I can't wait to hear it with Austin Huntington, our soloist. Romeo and Juliet is a gem with the dissonance, the violin and viola solos, the bass clarinet, and the smooth tenor sax. I told Beth Wilson last night that I like her bass drum part in "Friar Laurence." There is so much more. Come hear all the nuances that I miss as I concentrate on my part. Then tell me and the other musicians, at the after-concert reception over a glass of champagne, what you liked best! We will sell out! See you soon!

Denise Leddon, Association President

P.S. Hope you can also attend the LASA Annual Meeting at our orchestra rehearsal on April 19. [See page 4 for more information.]

Denise is in her second year as Association President and plays second violin in the orchestra.
