LAS June 4 Concert, “Building a New World”
Prokofiev’s Piano Concerto No. 3, Frederic Chiu, soloist

The orchestra is very excited to welcome pianist Frederic Chiu to perform with them from the Bankhead stage. Chiu is a full-time Professor of Piano at Carnegie Mellon University, as well as an Adjunct Professor at the Hartt School of Music, and known as an exceptional interpreter of the music of Sergei Prokofiev. He is an acclaimed innovator and an engaging and virtuosic pianist. Prokofiev’s colorful Piano Concerto No. 3 is the most often performed of his five piano concertos. It was written over a period of ten years (1911-1921) while the composer was in exile from his native Russia. The concerto is by turns haunting, lively, poetic, and bright.

Zhou Tian’s moving elegy, “Listening to the Land,” is a movement from his suite, Broken Ink. It was inspired by a Song Dynasty poem by Xin Qiji about lost love. Tian is a Chinese American composer who was nominated for a Grammy Award for his work “Composition for Orchestra.”

Czech composer Antonín Dvořák wrote his popular “New World Symphony” in 1893 while in New York City, serving as the director of the National Conservatory of Music of America. Native American music and African American spirituals influenced the music Dvorak wrote while he was in North America. The symphony premiered at Carnegie Hall, and a recording of it was aboard Apollo 11, which made the first moon landing in 1969.

TO PURCHASE CONCERT TICKETS: Order online: <https://livermorearts.org>; phone the Bankhead ticket office, 925-373-6800; or visit the ticket office in person, 2400 First Street, Livermore. Phone first to check current office hours.

🎵 A Message from 🎵
GUILD PRESIDENT BETH WILSON

We are all very grateful to be back to our more regular schedule of activities. The orchestra will be performing the long-awaited Sergei Prokofiev Piano Concerto No. 3 with Frederic Chiu, as well as Antonin Dvořák's beloved New World Symphony, and an ethereal short piece, "Listening to the Land," by Zhou Tian.

The Guild held its Spring meeting in April. Members elected next season's officers: President, Beth Wilson; Vice President, Nancy McKenzie; Secretary, Sally Swanson; and Treasurer, Joan Dickinson. We all thanked outgoing Vice President Joan Green. We were then treated to amazing performances by three of our Youth Competition runners-up, followed by refreshments and a chance to schmooze.

We will have held two recent Estate Sales by the time you read this, thus being able to support our wonderful Symphony monetarily. Sales profits go directly to the Symphony Association. Because of these sales, as well as some additional extremely generous donations, the Guild was able to give the Association $10,000, which will be formally presented at our June 4 concert.

The Guild sponsored an after-concert reception at our April concert, and we will also have a reception after our June performance. Be on the lookout as you enter the lobby at our upcoming concert for a table to order your season tickets for next year! This is the best time to purchase them.

My thanks go out to all the Guild members who have worked so hard to accomplish these activities and more, as you will read about in these Symphony Notes!

Guild Estate Sales

The Guild held a very successful sale at the home of Pat Mann, a longtime active Guild member who passed away recently. All of money earned, nearly $8,000, went to the Livermore-Amador Symphony. Wonderful work, Guild members! Once again, we would like to thank our "village" of volunteers: Tim Barry, Joyce Brown, Bob Canning, Patty Canning, Adela Cook, Joan Dickinson, Patti Fredericks, Joan Green, Valarie Huff, Darlene Jeffries, Mary Jestice, Mary Ann Johnston, Bill Leach, Alex Lee, Nancy McKenzie, Barbara Morrison, Janice Paquette, Cherie Jo Patenaude, Mary Anne Rozsa, Joie Spooner, Sarah Wharton, and Beth Wilson. Another sale was well underway at the time of this newsletter deadline. Stay tuned for an update.

Kudos to you all! Nancy and Patti

" Happy Birthday and Thank You, Maudie!"

Speaking of Estate Sales... Guild members gathered in Nancy McKenzie's beautiful backyard on April 8 to say happy 97th birthday to Maudie Kuening, the founder of our wildly successful Estate Sales. She came up with this brilliant fund-raising idea years ago when a friend asked her to help with a garage sale. Maudie got to thinking, "I bet we could raise a lot of money for the Livermore-Amador Symphony if the Guild ran these garage sales for other people." She was right! And so, a wonderful idea was born, and we have been running sales to raise money for the symphony ever since. In addition to the birthday celebration, we also used this gathering to thank Maudie for the substantial gift of her time over the years and for a very generous financial gift she made to the Guild recently. The performance of Sibelius' Symphony No. 3 was dedicated to Maudie at the LAS April 23 concert to further express our gratitude!

In Memory of Nan Davies, 1937–2022

Nan Wood Davies joined the Symphony in 1964 and continued to play the flute with us for over 50 years. She and her husband, Walter Davies, were active members of the Tri-Valley arts community. Nan gave private flute lessons to many students in the Livermore area and played with Bay Flute Club, the Ohlone Wind Orchestra, and her flute quartet, Silverwinds, as well as LAS.

Nan was a scientist and moved to the Bay Area to work at Lawrence Livermore Lab. She met Walter there, and they married on Dec. 28, 1963. After bearing and raising their two children, she re-entered the workforce, eventually working for Wind River Systems of Alameda and retiring in 2012.

Nan had a lifelong passion for cooking and baking, sewing, reading, and travel. She was an extremely active member of the Symphony Guild. She hosted meetings and events at her home, and there were always delicious treats at any function Nan was involved in. Gracious, warm, welcoming, and cheerful, Nan was a vital part of our community and will be sorely missed.

Livermore-Amador Symphony

2022–2023 Season Preview

Lara Webber, Music Director & Conductor

Dr. Arthur P. Barnes, Music Director Emeritus

POPS on the Green October 15, 2022

Concert begins at 3 p.m.

For the second year in a row, our annual Pops concert will be al fresco on the Shea Stage in the Bankhead Plaza on an autumn afternoon. Bring a picnic or snack. No need for tickets, but donations will be accepted happily! As always, Pops is sponsored by the Livermore-Amador Symphony Guild, with all donations going to the Symphony. Join us on Saturday October 15 at 3 o'clock!

Family Concert December 3, 2022

Concert begins at 3 p.m.

In coordination with Livermore Arts and in partnership with Valley Dance Theatre, we present a free family concert at the Bankhead Theater followed by an "instrument petting zoo" (if public health concerns permit). Join us for a short, fun-filled celebration of the holidays in music on Saturday December 3, 2022, at 3 p.m.!

Holiday Joy December 3, 2022

Concert begins at 8:15 p.m. (no Prelude talk)

Music celebrating the season opens this concert with joy. English composers Coleridge-Taylor and Vaughan Williams bring us "A Christmas Overture" and "Greensleeves." The Nordic lyricism of Grieg leads us to a journey from darkness to brilliant light with French composer Saint-Saëns' exhilarating and triumphant "Organ Symphony."

Violins of Hope February 5, 6, and 7, 2023

Concerts begin at 3 p.m. on Sunday February 5 and at 8 p.m. on Mon. and Tues. February 6 and 7

The Violins of Hope are an extraordinary collection of restored violins, violas, and cellos that were played by Jewish musicians during the Holocaust. Hear their stories in concert, featuring violinist Lindsay Deutsch and cellist Peter Bedrossian. Presented in partnership with the East Bay Holocaust Education Center.

Kaleidoscopic Color and Spiritual Sound April 1, 2023

Prelude talk, 7–7:30 p.m.; concert begins at 8 p.m.

Intoxicating dance infuses the music of Mexican composer Arturo Márquez, while American composer Florence Price fuses folk song, spiritual feeling, and masterful symphonic sound to touch the soul. The talented winners of our young musicians competition are featured on this inspiring program.

Drama and Fantasy, O'Connor plays Beethoven May 20, 2023

Prelude talk, 7–7:30 p.m.; concert begins at 8 p.m.

Join us as we explore magical places and stories through music of Mozart, Beethoven, Liadov, and Stravinsky. We welcome one of the most remarkable pianists of our time, John O'Connor, in a performance of Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 3. Stravinsky transports us into a haunting, beautiful, and exciting fairy tale with his spectacular suite from his ballet The Firebird.

Programs subject to change.

Be a Symphony Supporting Player!

Join the Livermore-Amador Symphony Guild

The Livermore-Amador Symphony Guild provides support to the Symphony. The Guild produces and distributes concert-season brochures, hosts receptions, raises funds (organizes and runs estate sales, plans and produces the annual Pops concert), and more. Members gather for a prelude event in September, for meetings in January and April, and for a luncheon in May. Music is a part of each gathering. Please join the Guild!
